MOUNT OLIVE LUTHERAN CHURCH • ROCHESTER, MINNESOTA • 507-288-1580 • MOLIVE.ORG

A Congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Every year I am deeply appreciative of our movement together through Lent and the Easter season and love the variety of resurrection stories we hear before we get to Pentecost. In our worship life together, we are now in what is known as “Year B” of the lectionary scripture cycle. Year B prioritizes Mark’s Gospel more than the others, even though it’s the shortest of the Gospel stories in the biblical canon. One of the interesting things about Mark’s short Gospel is that it really isn’t concerned too much with resurrection stories. As it turns out, the earliest gospel manuscripts ended right as the women ran from the tomb, “for they were afraid.” And that was it!

Understandably, the early church tried to smooth over such an abrupt ending (especially considering the other gospels included a slew of resurrection sightings, meals, and other accounts). So, a few “bonus” endings to the gospel story were added to tie it up a little more nicely. But there’s something about the abrupt, open-endedness of the earlier manuscripts that is a gift for us. It is a gift because it reminds us that resurrection happens in the midst of our fears, and that even when we are afraid, we are beckoned onwards to see where the risen Christ might meet us next.

Indeed, the spirit of the risen Christ is meeting us as we go, always! We will proclaim this Pentecost story and tradition in celebratory fashion on the festival of Pentecost, which will be on Sunday, May 20th, this year. So, to prepare for the Spirit Fire to illuminate our lives, be sure to wear your fieriest colors (reds, oranges, and yellows) to worship that day, as together we proclaim the divine presence of God sending us forth into the world each day that we live!

Endowment Fund Expands its Reach

Providing scholarships for Mount Olive students and students within our Companion Synods: that is the main goal of the Mount Olive Endowment Fund. The Endowment Fund Team recently voted to expand our scholarship reach by establishing a fund to help Mount Olive students wishing to attend Bible Camp at Good Earth Village near Spring Valley in the summer. The cost of a week at camp is $595, which is beyond the means of a number of our families. The hope is that we will be able to provide a $300 scholarship for each student wishing to go to camp. If you would like to make a big difference in the life of one of our kids, please consider giving to this fund. Simply memo your check or online donation, "Endowment Fund Camp Scholarships." Thank you.

Children Singing In Worship:

The Wee Ones will be singing for the 10:30 am service on May 13th.

Practice will take place as usual during the education hour that day.

Pentecost is May 20!

Sometimes called the "birthday" of the Church, Pentecost marks the end of the Easter season and celebrates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, empowering them to continue Christ's mission to the world. Jesus commissioned them, saying "you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

As part of this festival, worship will be led with bells, brass, and choir; and to celebrate our congregation's role in the ongoing work of God in the world, we will sing "The Olive Tree," a hymn commissioned by Mount Olive in 2009. Please join us for this special day—and come wearing red!

Scout Pancake Breakfast May 20

Following both services on May 20th, the Scouting groups that meet at Mount Olive will host a pancake breakfast. Come and enjoy pancakes, sausage, juice, and coffee. A free-will offering will be collected to support the Scouts.

Summer Worship Schedule begins Memorial Day Weekend.
Services at 5:00 pm Saturday and 8:00 and 9:30 am Sundays.

If you would like to receive an invitation to Sign Up Genius or have any questions about volunteering at Mount Olive, please contact Nancy Britson, Director of Congregational Life. 2nd Sunday of Service- Bandage Rolling for Global Health Ministries

On April 8, 147 bandages were torn, rolled, and mailed off to Global Health Ministries to be used by health care workers in third world countries. Thanks go to all the Sunday school students and parents who participated in this fun activity, to Warren Kemplin for making the bandage rolling tools, and to Connie McCullough for leading the youth during this service project. It was especially fun watching the middle school youth help the younger children roll bandages.

This was the last service Sunday until, “God’s work. Our hands.” Sunday, on September 9, 2018. Mark your calendar for this special service day. We hope all members of Mount Olive will get involved. Last year there were 16 projects, and close to 200 volunteers who participated. Please contact Sherry Will at sherry@molive.org or 507-288-1580, ext. 210 if you have a project idea or would like to lead a project for “God’s work. Our hands.” in September.

Women's Day of Service

The morning of Saturday, April 21, Mount Olive was a bustle of activity for the 3rd Annual Women's Day of Service. This event, sponsored by Mount Olive Women of the ELCA and the Service and Social Outreach Ministry (SSOM), was a day for the women of Mount Olive to roll up their sleeves and get to work serving the church, our neighbors, and our global community. Thank you to the 30 women who came out and worked on some very worthwhile projects. Tasks included helping at the Habitat ReStore, knitting baby hats and knitting and crocheting prayer shawls for Mount Olive and local organizations, tying and sewing quilts for Lutheran World Relief (LWR), cutting out baby jackets and cutting and sewing receiving blankets for LWR, baking date bread for the Tanzanian Dinner Fundraiser, rolling band-aids for Global Health Ministries, and assembling 17 birthday bags for Channel One. The hum of conversations and fellowship was a joyful experience. Participants enjoyed the interaction of groups, being a part of something larger than they could do themselves, and the ability to socialize with other women and learn a new skill. We concluded the day with a shared lunch. Thanks to all who led projects and to those who brought food to share. Thanks also to Thrivent for providing a $250 grant for lunch and project supplies.

May Service Highlight - Dorothy Day Hospitality House

The Rochester Dorothy Day Hospitality House is a temporary homeless shelter that relies on donations and volunteers to provide meals and staff for the house. They know that life can be difficult. If someone is in need of a warm bed, a warm meal and some warm personalities, they are there for them. For more than 10 years, Mount Olive has committed to serving a meal to guests at the Dorothy Day House on the first Friday of the month. Typically 25 guests are present. Volunteers are asked to prepare food, eat with guests if they are able, and clean up afterwards. The typical time commitment is 5:30-7:00 pm.

Volunteering at the Dorothy Day house is a great opportunity for Mount Olive members and families to work together and provide a much needed service in our community. Dorothy Day herself, believed in the works of mercy; feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, and visit the sick and the incarcerated, as the most direct form of Christian action. Volunteering at the Dorothy Day House is a wonderful opportunity to participate in community outreach. As noted by one volunteer, "It's been a great, hands-on experience for my children to see the needs of others in Rochester. We've also had fun serving with other Mount Olive members."

Many dates are still open; you may sign up in the Gathering Area. For more information or to volunteer contact Anna Strand at annabstrand@gmail.com or 507-206-4564.
