“Compelled by God’s Love” to Give

Our theme this year is “Compelled by God’s Love.” The inspiration for this theme has been 1 John 4:19: “We love because God first loved us.” As we reflect on this theme, we hope to deepen our walk with Christ in each of our four “pillars”: Worship, Service, Education, and Fellowship. We believe we are compelled by God’s love to worship, to serve, to learn, and to live in community.

This theme could also be our Stewardship theme for this fall. We are blessed beyond measure at Mount Olive with abundant resources for our own needs. With that in mind, we are compelled by God’s love to now concentrate on extending our ministry beyond our walls. This fall, as you reflect on how God’s love is compelling you to give beyond our walls, we invite you to consider how increasing our mission giving by $25,000 could accomplish the following:

- $10,000 would enable us to 1) grant scholarships to students at Lutheran schools; 2) support pastors studying at the School of Theology in Bogota; 3) give monthly support to our missionaries in Colombia, Curtis and Katie Kline; and 4) give generous general support to the overall education ministry of the Lutheran Church of Colombia.
- $3,000 would enable us to support our newest neighborhood ministry partner, Gage East Empowerment Center, as they seek to provide housing and social services to those families experiencing chronic homelessness in Rochester.
- $2,000 would provide support to the new youth outreach center, The Refuge, through Next Chapter Ministries, our ministry partner serving persons impacted by crime.
- $10,000 would enable us to increase our mission support to the ELCA, through which we are supporting the global ministries of the church. This would put us on the path of being, once again, one of the leading mission congregations in our region.

Is God’s love compelling us to these new ventures? We believe it is. Please pray about how God’s love is compelling you to join in this outreach beyond our walls. Stewardship Weekend is October 14-15. On that weekend you will be asked to make your intentions known as we go forward together.

In Christ,
Pastor Glenn

Memorial Bench Given

Ramona Purnell and friend Larry Larsen have given a lovely memorial bench to Mount Olive Lutheran Church. It has been installed on the cement off the outside southwest wall of the Sanctuary as a place where people may come to pray and meditate. Its location puts a person close to the columbarium installed beneath the communion table in the Sanctuary, which may be meaningful to people who have loved ones interred there. Thank you, Ramona and Larry.

Volunteer Update

Schedules for October Worship Volunteers and Sunday coffee and cookie fellowship have been distributed to all volunteers. There are still several openings for volunteers on both schedules. Is there a time that you could serve? At Mount Olive, volunteers select their service opportunities, time and date, via the online scheduling program, Sign Up Genius. If you would like to receive an invitation to Sign Up Genius or have any questions about volunteering at Mount Olive, please contact Nancy Britson, Director of Congregational Life. ## October Service Sunday

October marks the beginning of the Second Sunday of Service opportunities that occur 6 times during the program year. Even the youngest students learn about serving others in Jesus' name. On Sunday, October 8, the project will be putting together Blizzard Boxes; boxes of emergency food supplies for seniors, a program sponsored by Lutheran Social Services. Anyone can participate, come to the Gathering Area during the Education Hour beginning at 9:15 am.

Lutheran World Relief Personal Care Kits

Lutheran World Relief
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT. LASTING PROMISE.

In October we will be collecting items for Personal Care Kits to help our neighbors around the world.

Lutheran World Relief's supply of Personal Care Kits remains critically low as requests for assistance across the world increase. These kits contain basic hygiene supplies that help reduce the spread of germs and disease. They are sent around the world to people dealing with the effects of war, disaster and poverty. Personal Care Kits not only send a tangible message of God's love amidst suffering, they also save lives by helping families stay healthy in difficult living conditions. If you are willing to donate to help others around the world the following items are needed to complete a kit: 1 lighter weight bath size towel (approximately 52" x 27"), 2 bath size bars (4-5 oz.) of soap, 1 adult size toothbrush, 1 sturdy comb, 1 metal nail clippers. You may drop off items in the Gathering area in the Lutheran World Relief box anytime in October.

Food for Friends – The John Adams Backpack Program

Once again this year, Mount Olive, Channel One, and John Adams Middle School have partnered to get nutritious food to students at John Adams. Drivers and packers are needed to make this program work. Each task only requires 15-30 minutes of your time. There is no other program where you can make such an important and appreciated impact on a child's life in 15 minutes. We often hear from the kids about how this simple act benefits them. The schedule is always posted on the Volunteer Sign-up Table in the Gathering Area. Select the date/time you will perform one or more of these tasks. Contact Warren Kemplin at 254-4932 or Mark Schultz at 254-4164 with questions or to arrange substitutes as needed.

Monthly Service Opportunities

Regularly scheduled opportunities that Mount Olive members participate in include:

The October selection is Hillbilly Elegy: A Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis. This book by J.D. Vance gives a probing look at the struggles of America's white working class through the author's own story of growing up in a poor Rust Belt town. A deeply moving memoir, with its share of humor and vividly colorful figures, Hillbilly Elegy is the story of how upward mobility really feels. ## Fellowship Tables

Once again, this year there will be three options for Fellowship Tables. These groups meet in homes, restaurants, or in the Fellowship Hall at church for a meal. These groups are all a great way to branch out, meet new people, and bond with long-time friends without a huge time commitment.

Restaurant and Home Fellowship Tables are formed for one program year and are open to adult couples and singles. Please indicate your preference for one of these groups on your registration form which is available in the Gathering Area and return by October 22. Each group will have a volunteer organize their first meeting. Following the first meeting, the group sets its own schedule for the remainder of the year.

The Family Fellowship Table meets in the Fellowship Hall at Mount Olive for a pot-luck meal a few times a year. Some families choose to get together on their own as well. The first meal is set for Saturday, November 4 at 6:00 pm. Each family brings a dish to share; paper products, tableware, and beverages will be provided. Sign up in the Gathering Area. Direct any questions to Nancy Britson (nancy@molive.org).

Inclusive Church Taskforce Update

The Inclusive Church Taskforce has been facilitating congregational conversations about how we communicate, strengthening our relationships with one another, and working to celebrate one another as whole people. Our hope is that this process will be helpful for this conversation, our lives together as a community of Christ, and our ongoing work for justice. Specifically, we hope to work together through the Reconciling in Christ process to extend an authentic welcome to people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ). The framework for this process comes from the ELCA Reconciling Works website: <http://www.reconcilingworks.org> and is called Building an Inclusive Church: <http://www.welcomingresources.org/welcomingtoolkit-preview.pdf>

The Inclusive Church Task Force wants to thank everyone for their attendance at the three summer brunches and let you know that the awesome dialogue that was started will continue for the rest of 2017 and into 2018. Upcoming opportunities include the Adult Forum on October 1. Ryan from Reconciling Works will lead a discussion that introduces, in a more comprehensive manner, what Reconciling in Christ means and what our next steps are. On Saturday, November 18 at 6:15 pm, we will have pizza available and show the movie For the Bible Tells Me So with discussion afterwards.

Early in 2018 we hope to have three more Adult Forums with the topics including: LGBTQ 101, a theological discussion, and an open questions and answer forum. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at these events. You are invited to review the resources listed above and to ask any questions you may have.
